(a) General Limitation. No Corporate Person shall be liable for any loss or damage if, in taking or omitting to take any action causing such loss or damage, either (1) such Corporate Person acted (A) in good faith, (B) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would have exercised under similar circumstances, and (C) in a manner such Corporate Person reasonably believed was in the best interests of the Corporation, or (2) such Corporate Person's breach of or failure to act in accordance with the standards of conduct set forth in Clause (a) (1) above (the "Standards of Conduct") did not constitute willful misconduct or recklessness.

(b) Reliance on Corporate Records and Other Information. Any Corporate Person shall be fully protected, and shall be deemed to have complied with the Standards of Conduct, in relying in good faith, with respect to any information contained therein, upon (1) the Corporation's records, or (2) information, opinions, reports or statements (including financial statements and other financial data) prepared or presented by (A) one or more other Corporate Persons whom such Corporate Person reasonably believes to be competent in the matters presented, (B) legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters that such Corporate Person reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence, (C) a committee or an Appointed Committee, of which such Corporate Person is not a member, if such Corporate Person reasonably believes such committee or Appointed Committee merits confidence, or (D) the Board, if such Corporate Person is not a Director and reasonably believes that the Board merits confidence.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to his Corporation.

Any such director, officer, employee or agent who has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, with respect to any claim, suit or proceeding of the character described herein shall be entitled to indemnification as a matter of right. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, eligibility for indemnification hereunder may be determined but need not be, by the Board Of Directors (or a committee thereof). Such a resolution shall be valid in the case of a director(s) or officer(s) who is a director(s) notwithstanding the presence of such director(s) or officer(s) who is a director(s) at the meeting of the Board Of Directors of the Corporation (or committee thereof) which acts upon or in reference to such indemnification and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be fully disclosed or known by the Board Of Directors and the Board (or committee thereof) shall nevertheless authorize, approve, or ratify such indemnification. The directors may request independent legal counsel (who may be regular counsel of the Corporation) to deliver to it their written opinion as to whether such director, officer, employee or agent has met such standards.

If several claims, issues or matters of action are involved any such person may be entitled to indemnification as to some matters even though he is not entitled as to other matters.

The Corporation may advance expenses to or, where appropriate, may at its expense undertake the defense of any such director, officer, employee or agent upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such expenses if it should ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to indemnification hereunder.

The provisions of this Section shall be in addition to any rights to which any person concerned may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any such person.

The indemnification provided by this Section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement vote of stockholders or directors as a matter of law, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

The Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Section or otherwise.

The power to make, alter, amend or repeal these By-Laws is vested in the Board, but the affirmative vote of a number of Directors equal to a majority of the number who would constitute a full Board of Directors at the time of such action shall be necessary to take any action for the making, alteration, amendment or repeal of these By-Laws.
